CLASSIC BLEND

NOSE

Berries, fresh oak and a hint of spice.

TASTE & FINISH

Light, sweet, fruity taste; balanced and smooth. The grain comes through gently and it ends with a tingle of honey and citrus fruit. The finish is clean.

IN THE MIX 2009

...it has flavours that seem sweet but not feminine.

The finish is soft and luxurious.

An all-around good whiskey.

Excerpts from In The Mix magazine 2009.

SPIRIT JOURNAL - PAUL PACULT

...Has a chardonnay yellow/gold appearance; excellent clarity... Entry is crisp, moderately sweet in a honeyed manner, and spiced...

RARE IRISH

NOSE

Citrus fruits and floral notes. Honeysuckle with a peppery overtone.

TASTE & FINISH

Balanced and smooth. It has a rich malt taste with suggestions of citrus fruits and oak. There is a subtle hint of honey on the higher notes. The finish is long, sustained and loyal to the taste.

SINGLE MALT

NOSE

The nose is clean, smooth and sophisticated. There are hints of oak interwoven with a slight mustiness. On the higher notes, ripe, summer berries.

TASTE & FINISH

A finely balanced whiskey, smooth with an excellent body. Peppery. Spicy. Malty oak and a complex sweetness. A hint of vanilla and a lingering earthiness.

The finish is long on the palate and very satisfying.

LIMITED EDITION

NOSE

The nose is full, malty and sweet with a hint of citrus; and on the higher notes spice; a touch of cardamom.

TASTE & FINISH

Smooth, sweet to start, balanced, spice and an oatmeal maltiness. Hints of marzipan and a subtle and satisfying overtone of chocolate. A lingering and satisfying finish, full with a taste of oak. Rich and luxurious - truly a delightful, masterfully blended whiskey.

"simply stunning"

REVIEWS

JIM MURRAY'S WHISKY BIBLE 2010 RATING 93/100

...simply stunning; just so light, the clarity of the barley, sugar and vanilla leaves you purring; a limited edition of unlimited beauty. One of the lightest, subtle, intriguing and quite simply disarming Irish whiskeys on the market.
